Report on Guest Lecture on "Sustainable Development Goals"

The Head, Mrs. Evangeline Rajkumari, Department of Sociology organised Guest Lecture for I, II & III BA students, & 1 staff and 35 students actively participated in the Lecture on " Sustainable Development Goals" on 31st March 2026 from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. at the Seminar Hall. The session aimed to create awareness among students about the significance of sustainable development from a sociological perspective.

The resource person for the lecture was Dr. Manjula V, Principal and Professor, Department of Sociology, Government First Grade College, Bangaru Thirupathi, Kolar. In her lecture, she discussed the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) introduced by the United Nations and explained their relevance in addressing global social, economic and environmental challenges.

Dr. Manjula approached the topic through the lens of sociology, highlighting how social structures, inequalities, cultural practices and community participation play a crucial role in achieving the SDGs. She emphasized the importance of education, social awareness, and collective responsibility in promoting sustainable development within societies.

The session was highly informative and encouraged students to understand the relationship between sociology and sustainable development. The lecture concluded with an interactive discussion where students actively engaged with the speaker and gained deeper insights into the topic.
