THE REPORT ON POSTER MAKING COMPOSITION

The Head Mrs. Evangeline Rajkumari, Department of Sociology organised Inter-Class Poster Making Competition for I, II & III BA, Sociology Students. 5 Teams and 20 Students actively participated in the Competition Organised on 29th May'2024. The event aimed to bring awareness among students about the dangers of cyber bullying and to promote safe online practices by displaying a wide range of creativity and understanding of the topic. The poster making competition was a resounding success, effectively engaging students and enhancing their awareness, showcased the artistic talents of the participants and also reinforced the importance of maintaining a safe online environment. The event was a step towards creating a safer digital community and empowering students to become responsible digital citizens.

Highlights of the event:

- ❖ Diverse Themes: Students addressed various aspects of cyber bullying, including its psychological effects, preventive measures, and the role of bystanders.
- ❖ Innovative Ideas: Many posters featured innovative ideas such as helpline numbers, steps to secure personal information, and quotes to inspire positive online behaviour.
- ❖ Interactive Session: An interactive session was conducted post-competition where students discussed their posters and shared personal experiences related to cyber bullying and online safety.

Lastly the event was judged and the results were announced by Prof. Suja D Shanthi, Head Dept. of Computer Science and Prof.Hemalatha. M.S, Head Dept. of Political Science. Certificates were distributed to the winners and the participants.
