Report on Awareness Programme on World Day Against Trafficking in Person: “Trapped Behind the Scam”

The Head Mrs. Evangeline Rajkumari, Department of Sociology organised an awareness programme on World Day Against Trafficking in Persons themed: “Trapped Behind the Scam,” on 4th August 2026, for B.A. Sociology students. The programme witnessed the participation of 1 staff member and 40 students.

The resource person, Ms. Anitha Kanaiya, highlighted the rise of online scams and their link to human trafficking, explaining how fake job offers and fraudulent schemes can lead to exploitation. Along with her rescue team, she shared real-life case studies, providing practical insights into trafficking and rescue challenges.

The session emphasised digital awareness, vigilance, and recognising warning signs of online exploitation. It concluded with an interactive discussion, making the programme informative, engaging, and impactful in promoting awareness among students.
