Report on Street play – “Violence Against Women”

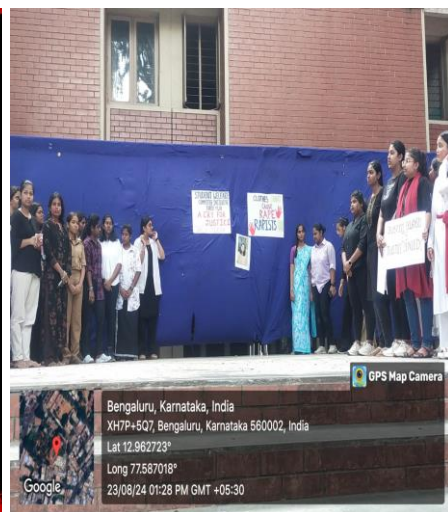

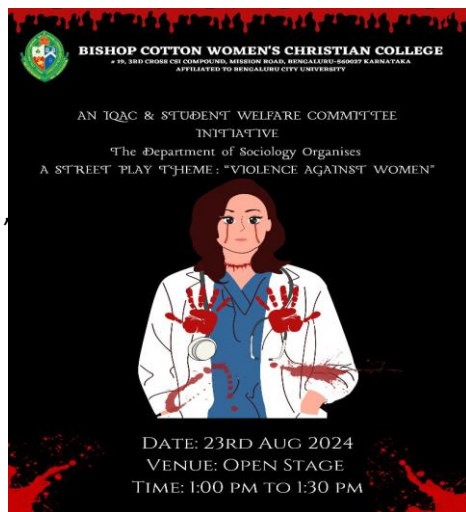

An IQAC and Student Welfare Committee initiative, the Department of Sociology organizes a street play theme: “Violence Against Women” on 23rd Aug 2024 , from 1:00 pm to 1:30 in the college campus.

35 students from various department actively participated and presented this street play .The Street play was viewed by the Students, Staff and faculty members of the college.

It was for creating the awareness and to spread the message amongst the minds of the young students about the safety of women, which is one of the great issues needs to be addressed in the society in general and has to be paid a special attention toward this issue. The Street play was divided into three parts:

1. First part was on the status of women in the family,
2. Second part was on Sexual Harassment in the workplace
3. Last part was on save Women.

It highlighted the psychological and physical impact of these issues on women and emphasized the importance of support systems ,legal recourse and societal change . It was a successful endeavour in raising awareness about violence against women . It effectively engaged the community and fostered important conversations about addressing and preventing gender-based violence.
