

Workshop on 'Core Concepts in Research Methodology'

A workshop on 'Core Concepts in Research Methodology' was organised by the Research and Innovation Cell for the second year UG & first year PG students on 29th April 2026. Dr. Poornima Vijaykumar, Associate Professor & Head, Postgraduate Department of Commerce, St. Joseph's College of Commerce was the resource person. Principal Mrs. Sunila Kumari welcomed the gathering and spoke about the importance of research. Dr Rebecca Theodore, Convenor of Research and Innovation Cell introduced the guest speaker.

The objective of the Workshop – 1. To build foundational understanding of research & its significance in academia, 2. To familiarise participants with core concepts and approaches of research methodology, 3. To introduce key tools techniques and sources of data and 4. To guide participants in writing and presenting research work.

The workshop was held in two sessions which dealt with the fundamentals & significance of research, its concepts & approaches. The resource person highlighted the importance of research tools and applications in conducting research. Both the sessions helped the participants to gain insightful knowledge on research methodology.

The program began with an opening prayer and Bible reading by student council SCM Prefect secretary Ms. Cathryn Jessica & Chapel Prefect Ms. Gabriella Joan respectively. Ms. Stacy, General Secretary proposed vote of thanks. Student council President Ms. Sanjana Simran Peters & Vice-President & Ms. Ayman Fathima were the comperes. Dr. Rebecca Theodore, Dr. Chaya Anilkumar, Dr. Saadia Hameed and Dr Susanna of Research and Innovation Cell were present. About 358 UG & PG students benefitted from the enriching and inspiring workshop.
